

NEWS and EVENTS

Offshore E&I Work for PTT Platform Compression Facilities Project

IMS

IMS Joint Venture

Laemchabang, Thailand, Nov. 16, 2011 - IEA have been awarded by IMS Joint Venture to supply multi disciplined and technical manpower for the offshore construction of Platform Compression Facilities (PCF) Project at PTT Riser Platform located in the Gulf of Thailand.

Recently, IEA has successfully completed the E&I Onshore construction work of PCF Project at IMS JV assembly yard in Laemchabang Port. The project is being undertaken by Punj Lloyd Group as the main contractor and Flour Daniel Eastern, Inc. as the owner's representative and PMC.

SCOPE OF WORK & DESCRIPTION:

Offshore technical manpower supply for PCF construction works. Manpower discipline includes as follows; E&I Engineers, QA/QC Engineer, E&I Supervisors, Technicians, Certified Welders and Fitters.

DURATION:

November 2011 – February 2012

CLIENT:

IMS Joint Venture

OWNER:

PTT Public Co., Ltd.